Society Membership

10.0 Types of Members

10.1 A Member is either an Extraordinary Member or a Life Member, but not an Honorary Member.

10.2 An Extraordinary Member has the rights and responsibilities set out in these Rules.

10.3 A Life Member is a person who is acknowledged as a longstanding Member of the Society. A Life Member has all the rights and responsibilities of an Extraordinary Member (including the right to vote), but does not have to pay fees, Pittances, or levies.

10.4 An Honorary Member is a person who is acknowledged as providing or having provided important services to the Society. An Honorary Member has none of the rights or privileges of a Member.

11.0 Admission of Members

11.1 To become an Extraordinary Member, a person ("the Humble Applicant") must:

- (a) Complete an application form, if the Committee requires this; and
- (b) Supply any other information the Committee requires.

11.2 The Committee may interview the Humble Applicant when it considers Membership applications.

11.3 The Committee shall have complete discretion when it decides whether or not to let the Humble Applicant become an Extraordinary Member. The Committee shall advise the Humble Applicant of its decision, and that decision shall be final.

11.4 An Extraordinary Member may become a Life Member only if:

- (a) The Committee recommends that the Society should appoint the Extraordinary Member as a Life Member; and

- (b) The Society passes a Resolution appointing the Extraordinary Member as a Life Member by a two-thirds majority of those Members present and voting.

12.0 The Register of Members

12.1 The Temporary Secretary shall keep a register of Members ("the Register"), which shall contain the names, the addresses and telephone numbers of all Members, and the dates at which they became Members.

12.2 If a Member's address or telephone number changes, that Member shall give the new address or telephone number to the Temporary Secretary.

12.3 Each Member shall provide such other details as the Committee requires.

13.0 Cessation of Membership

13.1 Any Member may resign by giving written notice to the Temporary Secretary.

13.2 A Member may have his or her Membership terminated in the following way:

- (a) If, for any reason whatsoever, the Committee is of the view that a Member is breaching the Rules or acting in a manner inconsistent with the Purposes of the Society, the Committee may give written notice of this to the Member ("the Committee's Notice"). The Committee's Notice must:
- (i) Explain how the Member is breaching the Rules or acting in a manner inconsistent with the Purposes of the Society;
 - (ii) State what the Member must do in order to remedy the situation; or state that the Member must write to the Committee giving reasons why the Committee should not terminate the Member's Membership.
 - (iii) State that if, within 14 days of the Member receiving the Committee's Notice, the Committee is not satisfied, the Committee may in its absolute discretion immediately terminate the Member's Membership.
 - (iv) State that if the Committee terminates the Member's Membership, the Member may appeal to the Society.
- (b) 14 days after the Member received the Committee's Notice, the Committee may in its absolute discretion by majority vote terminate the Member's Membership by giving the Member written notice ("Much-Feared Termination Notice"), which takes immediate effect. The Much-Feared Termination Notice must state that the Member may appeal to the Society at the next Meeting by giving written notice to the Temporary Secretary ("Member's Notice") within 14 days of the Member's receipt of the Much-Feared Termination Notice.
- (c) If the Member gives the Member's Notice to the Temporary Secretary, the Member will have the right to be fairly heard at the next Society Meeting. If the Member chooses, the Member may provide the Secretary with a written explanation of the events as the Member sees them ("the Member's Craven Explanation"), and the Member may require the Secretary to give the Member's Craven Explanation to every other Member within 7 days of the Temporary Secretary receiving the Member's Craven Explanation. If the Member is not satisfied that the other Society Members have had sufficient time to consider the Member's Craven Explanation, the Member may defer his or her right to be heard until the following Society Meeting.
- (d) When the Member is heard at a Society Meeting, the Society may question the Member and the Committee Members.
- (e) The Society shall then by majority vote decide whether to let the termination stand, or whether to reinstate the Member. The Society's decision will be final.

14.0 Re-admission of former Members

14.1 Any former Member who has resigned may apply for re-admission in the same way as a new Humble Applicant, but if the former Member's membership was terminated by the Committee or the Society, the Humble Applicant shall not be readmitted without the approval of the Committee by majority vote.

15.0 Obligations of Members:

15.1 All Members (and Committee Members) shall promote the Purposes of the Society and shall do Nothing to bring the Society into Disrepute.

Money And Other Assets Of The Society

16.0 Use of Money and Other Assets

16.1 The Society may only Use Money and Other Assets if:

- (a) It is for a Purpose of the Society;
- (b) It is not for the sole personal or individual benefit of any Member; and
- (c) That Use has been approved by either the Committee or by majority vote of the Society.

17.0 Joining Fees, Pittances and Levies

17.1 The Society shall decide by majority vote at a Society Meeting:

- (a) What a Member must pay to join the Society ("Joining Fee"); and
- (b) What a Member must pay in order to stay a Member ("Pittance") and how often this must be paid.

17.2 The Committee may by majority vote impose a levy or levies on Members up to a maximum total of $20.00 in any one financial year.

17.3 If any Member does not pay a Pittance or levy by the date set by the Committee or the Society, that Member shall have a further period of seven days to pay the Pittance or levy. After the seven day period, the Member shall (without being released from the obligation of payment) have no Membership rights and shall not be entitled to participate in any Society activity until all the arrears are paid, and the Member's Membership shall be suspended until all arrears are paid in full.

18.0 Additional Powers

18.1 The Society may:

- (a) Employ people for the Purposes of the Society;
- (b) Exercise any power a trustee might exercise;
- (c) Invest in any investment that a trustee might invest in;
- (d) Borrow money and provide security for that if authorised by Majority vote at any Society Meeting.

19.0 Financial Year

19.1 The financial year of the Society begins on 1 April of every year and ends on 31 March of the next year.

20.0 Cheques

20.1 Any Payment made by the Society above a value of twenty dollars must be by Cheque or electronic deposit.

20.2 All Cheques must be signed by the President-For-Life, and countersigned by The Master of The Treasury.

21.0 Appointing a Grand Auditor

21.1 At an Annual General Meeting, the Society may by majority vote appoint someone to audit the Society ("the Grand Auditor"). The Grand Auditor shall audit the Society's accounts, and shall certify that they are correct. The Grand Auditor must be a member of the New Zealand Society of Accountants, and must not be a Member of the Society. If the Society appoints a Grand Auditor who is unable to act for some reason, the Committee shall appoint another Grand Auditor as a replacement.

Conduct Of Meetings

22.0 Society Meetings

22.1 A Society Meeting is either an Annual General Meeting or a Bizarre General Meeting.

22.2 The Annual General Meeting shall be held once every year between 1 April and 31 August. The Committee shall determine when and where the Society shall meet within those dates.

22.3 Bizarre General Meetings may be called by the Committee. The Committee must call a Bizarre General Meeting if the Temporary Secretary receives a written request signed by at least a quarter of the Members.

22.4 The Temporary Secretary shall give all Members at least 14 days written notice of:

- (a) The business to be conducted at any Society Meeting;
- (b) A copy of the Annual Report and Statement of Accounts, if the Society Meeting is an Annual General Meeting;
- (c) A list of Nominees for the Committee, and information about those Nominees if it has been provided. (The Temporary Secretary must not provide Members with information exceeding one side of an A4 sheet of paper per Nominee).
- (d) Notice of any motions and the Committee's recommendations about those motions. If the Temporary Secretary has sent notice to all Members in good faith, the Meeting and its business will not be invalidated simply because one or more Members do not receive the notice.

22.5 All Members may attend and vote at Society Meetings.

22.6 No Society Meeting may be held unless at least 15 Members attend.

22.7 All Society Meetings shall be chaired by the President-For-Life. If the President-For-Life is absent, the Temporary Secretary shall chair the Society Meeting. If the Temporary Secretary is also absent, the Society shall elect another Committee Member to chair that meeting. Any person chairing a Society Meeting has a casting vote.

22.8 On any given motion at a Society Meeting, the President-For-Life shall in good faith determine whether to vote by:

- (a) Voices;
- (b) Show of hands; or
- (c) Secret ballot.

However, if any Member demands a secret ballot before a vote by voices or show of hands has begun, voting must be by secret ballot. If a secret ballot is held, the President-For-Life, or the person Acting as Such will have a casting vote.

22.9 The business of an Annual General Meeting shall be:

- (a) Any minutes of the previous Meeting(s);
- (b) The President-For-Life's report on the business of the Society;
- (c) The Master of The Treasury's report on the finances of the Society, and the Statement of Accounts;
- (d) Election of Committee Members;
- (e) Motions to be considered;
- (f) General business; and
- (g) Approval of plans for the balance of the current and next calendar years.

23.0 Motions at Society Meetings

23.1 Any Member may request that a motion be voted on ("Member's Motion") at a particular Society Meeting, by giving written notice to the Temporary Secretary at least 28 days before that meeting. The Member may also provide information in support of the motion ("Member's Information"). The Committee may in its absolute discretion decide whether or not the Society will vote on the motion. However, if the Member's Motion is signed by at least a quarter of all Members:

- (a) It must be voted on at the Society Meeting chosen by the Member; and
 - (b) The Temporary Secretary must give the Member's Information to all Members at least 14 days before the Society Meeting chosen by the Member; or if the Temporary Secretary fails to do this, the Member has the right to raise the motion at the following Society Meeting.
- 23.2 The Committee may also decide to put forward motions for the Society to vote on ("Committee Motions").

24.0 Committee Meetings

- 24.1 No Committee Meeting may be held unless more than half of the Committee Members attend.
- 24.2 The President-For-Life shall chair Committee Meetings, or if the President-For-Life is absent, The President of Vice shall chair the Committee Meeting, or if the President of Vice is absent, the Temporary Secretary shall chair the Committee Meeting. If the Temporary Secretary is also absent, the Committee shall elect a Committee Member to chair that meeting.
- 24.3 Decisions of the Committee shall be by majority vote.
- 24.4 The President-For-Life or person acting as President-For-Life has a casting vote.
- 24.5 Only Committee Members present at a Committee Meeting may vote at that Committee Meeting.
- 24.6 Subject to these Rules, the Committee may regulate its own practices.

Signing Of Documents

25.0 Signing of Documents

- 25.1 The Society shall have a common seal. A document shall be executed on behalf of the Society if:
- (a) The common seal is attached to the document; and
 - (b) The document is witnessed by any one of the President-For-Life, President of Vice, Temporary Secretary, or The Master of The Treasury, and countersigned by one other member of the Committee.

Altering The Rules

26.0 Altering the Rules

- 26.1 The Society may alter or replace these Rules at a Society Meeting by a Resolution passed by a two-thirds majority of those Members present and voting.
- 26.2 Any proposed motion to amend or replace these Rules shall be signed by at least 15 Members and given in writing to the Temporary Secretary at least 28 days before the Society Meeting at which the motion is to be considered, and accompanied by a written explanation of the reasons for the proposal.
- 26.3 At least 14 days before the General Meeting at which any Rule change is to be considered the Temporary Secretary shall give to all Members written notice of the proposed motion, the reasons for the proposal, and any recommendations the Committee has.
- 26.4 When a Rule change is approved by a General Meeting the Managing Committee shall cause to be filed with the Registrar of Incorporated Societies advice of the Rule changes in the required form. No Rule change shall take effect until this is done.

Winding Up

27.0 Winding up

- 27.1 If the Society is wound up:
- The Society's debts, costs & liabilities shall be paid; Surplus Money & Other Assets of the Society may be disposed of:
- (i) By Resolution; or
 - (ii) According to the provisions in the Incorporated Societies Act 1908; but no distribution may be made to any Member;
